VOL. V. NO. 297. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, DECEMBER 10-11, 1899. PRICE, 5 CENTS

BROMLEY & CO.'S HORSES.

Although Mr. Featherstone, of the representative Chicago racing firm of Bromley & Co., is said to have taken up his residence in New York permanently, the combination is still considered a Chicago establishment and local interest attaches to the fortunes of its horses. With Mesmerist as the bright star they are now in winter quarters near Lexington. Mr. S. B. Weems of the Morning Telegraph inspected them there a few days since, and in a letter says:

"Mr. Bauer has twenty-four head of horses under his charge, including twelve yearlings. He has been blistering a good portion of them for one ailment and another and they were not in the best presentable order when I saw them. The great Mesmerist, winner of $40,000 in stakes and the champion 2-year-old of the year, was not exempt from the blistering process. He had shown slight indications of splints, and Mr. Bauer, believing in the ounce of prevention theory thought it best to make the application to his forelegs in time."

"Although Mesmerist has been retired from training routine more than six weeks he has grown and filled out to an appreciable degree. He is as broad over the back as a hackney, with the driving power of a locomotive in his great quarters and legs of iron under him. There has been much speculation as to whether Mesmerist will go a route next year. Mr. Bauer himself has little apprehension on that score. But, however that may be, there is not much doubt that he will keep all the sprinters busy, and that he will thrive under campaigning just as he did the past season."

"Of the other two-year-olds, several of which failed to run up to their private form, Indian Fairy has probably improved the most. This filly has lengthened and grown considerably and looks and acts as though she might be a hard one to beat in her class next spring."

"Previous, with whom Mr. Bauer accomplished wonders, inasmuch as he was a patched-up cripple and broke down badly at the Morris Park spring meeting, is as spry and lively as a kitten. He is likely, after a winter's rest, to train on and be a good horse again next year. Mr. Bauer also hopes that he will get Typhoon II.'s bad foreleg in shape to race this high-class sprinter next season."

"The yearlings hardly measure up in point of average excellence to the breed lot with which the stable began the campaign last spring. At that there may be one or two real good ones among them, and it may be remembered that Mesmerist was not supposed last winter to be the crack of the string, an honor that, by general consent, fell to the Hanover—Ursuline Nun colt, who subsequently proved to be somewhat of a failure so far as two-year-old racing goes."

"A chestnut, full brother to Henry of Navarre, is quite as high class looking as any of the colts. In fact, this youngster probably outpoints all brothers of the famous Henry, and if appearances count he ought to fulfil his claims of relationship. He is a lengthy colt underneath, but short coupled, powerfully built and clean limbed."

"One of the favorites of the stable is a brown colt by St. George—Marie Jansen. Mr. Bauer is sweet on this fellow, so that he has probably shown something a little above the ordinary. He is a rangy, bloodlike, racing looking sort, a little too leggy perhaps, but still with quality and substance enough to be very encouraging to his owners if he develops in the right way."

"Mr. Bauer has four Alberts, three colts and one filly, the latter a sister to Mesmerist. The three colts ought to grow into useful racers, although it is not very likely that another Mesmerist will be found among them. The filly is built on the compact lines of her brother. She is of fine size, but will stand some added growth before the season begins."

There are two Antocrat colts and a Lissak colt in the bunch that have quality enough to be promising, especially the latter, who is patterned much after his sire. There is also a Lamplighter colt, a bay, dam Sis o'Lee, the personal property of Mr. Bauer, that would be picked out anywhere as more than a likely racing chance. He is a colt of good size and substance and looks like he could carry weight and run fast."

"Mr. Bauer and O'Connor will put in a fortnight shortly at West Baden Springs."

"The stable will begin the racing season as usual at Morris Park unless in the meantime Messrs. Bromley & Co. change their minds and decide to ship to England. There was some talk of that earlier in the season. Mr. Bauer, however, evidently thinks the railbirds will have plenty of opportunity to see Mesmerist and the rest of the lot gallop at Morris Park the coming spring."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Jimmy McLaughlin, nothing happening, will go to the races next year with a string of twelve youngsters, now yearlings. They are a neat, good looking lot, bred as follows: Bay colt by Cheviot—Vendetta; bay filly by Ben Strome—Hymnal; chestnut filly by Albert—Annie Layne; bay filly by Eon—Calash; bay colt by Badge—Creola; bay colt by Exile—Bracken; chestnut colt by Knight of Ellerslie—Fiona; chestnut colt by Tenny—Hanap; chestnut colt by Spendthrift—Gold Core; a good looking brown colt by Top Gallant, and a bay colt by Eon—Geneva. The neat looking filly by Eon—Coles was the best tried of the lot, and although she only cost $150 she outlooks several of the higher priced ones. The bay colt by Badge—Creola is full of racy lines and is a bit larger in size than many of the Badges. The chestnut colt by Spendthrift—Gold Core is a good, sturdy looking youngster and should stand up under a lot of training and racing."

There are changes in the Futurity, which closes, with several other Coney Island Jockey Club stakes, on January 3, 1900. The club adds $10,000 instead of $7,500 as formerly, and November 1, 1901, is the date for filing transfer of the produce, with its engagement in the stake, which, when accompanied by all forfeits due to date, relieves the original subscriber from any liability. The Futurity of that year will also be run over a full six-furlongs course."

In the opinion of the stewards of the Washington Jockey Club, Spurs, who started in the last race at Bannings Saturday, November 25, was in no condition to have raced, and a fine of $100 was imposed upon his owner, Mr. F. D. Beard. Mr. Beard made an explanation to the stewards in regard to the soreness of Spurs and the fine was remitted."

Mr. William Hendrie has sold the big mare Toddy Lade, by Derwentwater—Scotch Reel, to Mr. J. S. Wadsworth of Genesee, N. Y., who will put her at the jumping game. She was third in the Queen's Plate at Woodbine last spring, and won the Stanley Produce and Maple Leaf Stakes and Dominion Handicap. She is scarcely the "cut" of a chaser, but she may prove the exception.—Canadian Sportsman."

Starter Ferguson was taking a look at Ostler Joe in the paddock Monday afternoon when the old black horse lashed out and kicked him in the left leg below the knee, cutting the flesh quite badly. Dr. Wedelstaidt, the track surgeon, fixed up the injury."

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private informa-mance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collected) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Colonel Cluke was best in the mud and went to the front when ready and drew away cleverly in the last eighth. Trum-mer showed early speed. Acushla had no excuse except that she dislikes heavy going. Colonel Cluke was run up to $500 by H. McCarren Jr. and bought by him. Frank McConnell ran a good race.

Winner—B. g. by St. Andrew—Olyanna.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. St. Casimir reeled in the gluey going and was clearly best. Decoy also liked the mud and ran a good race. Yellow Tail was never fairly in the hunt and is of little account in such going. Norford was going great guns at the finish and should win soon in slower company. F. W. Brode has improved somewhat, but tired at the head of the home stretch.

Scratched—16039 Floridan, 106; 16039 Silver Tail, 102; 14859 Glissande, 100; 12057 May Gertrude, 93.

Winner—Ch. g. by Racine—Evangeline.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Racivan saved ground on the stretch turn and was best anyway. Zurich ran a fair race, but weakened in the last furlong. Romany closed stentily. Sugden is not ready and should be improved by this race. Strongoli ran well to the home stretch.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Helen Scratch.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Imperious had clear sailing, liked the going and was well ridden but was probably best today. Tom Calvert ran a great race coming from tenth place in the last three furlongs. Daisy F. was unlucky. She was bumped in the first quarter and knocked out of second place in the final furlong. She is hardly at her best yet. Glengaber will do in slower company. Judge Wofford stopped badly in the last quarter. Red Pirate showed some speed but is not on edge. Grady quit badly after moving up fast on the far turn.

Scratched—15996 Alicia, 101; 16030 Dare II, 97; 15985 Whaleback, 94.

Overweights—Imperious, 3 pounds.

Silver Tone liked the going also, but began to weaken after going a mile. Jennie Reid finished gamely and had no excuses. Senora Caesar ran well for a mile and will do to watch when going a shorter distance. Montanus quit early.
